

OTIF100 is a cloud application (SaaS), with nothing to install on your computer. You can access your website through a browser on any device.

Documents

User's guide

This guide contains information for the regular user on how to upload data and how to make decisions with the application.

SFTP Guide

This guide contains instructions on how to establish automatic communication with the server, send and receive data. This is the way to connect your system or ERP to OTIF100.